

Congratulations to Mrs. Jeanette Brown Vick for being named a 2013 Boeing scholar and receiving a $2,500 award for professional development! Mrs. Vick was selected over all applicants to receive this prestigious award as a result of her dedication her students and desire to continuously improve her classroom activities. Her commitment to the well-being of her students is unmatched. Through her positive, personal relationships and daily interactions with her students, she juggles being a teacher, mentor and emotional supporter of her students. This professional development award will afford her the opportunity to learn about the most recent advances in instructional design and thereby facilitate an even richer learning experience for her students. The conference will be held April 23-26, 2013 in Las Vegas, NV. Mrs. Vick is a teacher at Oklahoma Centennial High School. Mrs. Vick is a member Greater Mount Olive Baptist Church, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. She is also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star (PHA), Heroines of Jericho, and Daughters of ISIS. She serves on the Alumni Board of Directors for the University of Central Oklahoma.
